

The 2025 Annual Education Conference (AEC) Scholarship Application is open to all current MiSGMP member categories. This form is for MiSGMP scholarship use ONLY and all decision are made by the MiSGMP Board of Directors.

Question should be addressed to the MiSGMP President at president@misgmp.org or to the MiSGMP Scholarship Committee Chair at scholarships@misgmp.org.

Submission Deadline: 5:00 p.m. EST, January 31, 2025
Submit Application to: scholarships@misgmp.org

General Eligibility Criteria

- MiSGMP scholarships are based on contributions to the chapter and are open to all current member categories.
- All scholarships are intended for MiSGMP members who might not be able to attend the AEC without financial assistance. MiSGMP members whose agency/employer/institution would otherwise provide full funding for them to attend are not eligible.
- A member who has received a MiSGMP scholarship in the past may apply but may not be awarded depending on the volume of applications received. Priority is given to first-time applicants.
- Scholarships are distributed as MiSGMP funding and budget allows, and at the discretion of the MiSGMP Board of Directors.
- Completed applications, all relevant committee reports, and additional documentation will be presented to the MiSGMP Board of Directors for final review and approval. Applications without all the necessary documents will be considered incomplete and will not be considered.

Additional Eligibility Criteria for Student Member Applicants

- Official documentation from the educational institution that the student is currently enrolled in an appropriate field of study such as government affairs, the hospitality industry, or meeting planning.
- Attainment of the status of junior or senior, or other program/course of study criteria verifying that the student is at least half-way through the program.

Additional Eligibility Criteria for Educator Member Applicants

- Official documentation from the educational institution that the educator is currently teaching a minimum of one course in an appropriate field of study such as government affairs, the hospitality industry, or meeting planning.

Responsibilities of Scholarship Recipients BOTH During and Following the Conference

- Full conference attendance, including all general sessions, workshops, and sponsored functions.

- Interact with exhibitors.
- Always represent MiSGMP in a professional manner while attending the conference.
- Recipients will be directed to share their conference experience in a post-conference scholarship survey within 30 days following the conference.
- Additional conference tasks, as requested.
- The recipient must fulfill all responsibilities, including full conference attendance. Failure to do so will make the recipient ineligible for scholarship reimbursement and/or future scholarships. The MiSGMP Scholarship Committee is responsible for ensuring that all responsibilities have been met.

Instructions and Information

- Answer each question thoroughly; if it is not applicable, write “N/A”.
- Responses to be based on MiSGMP activity for the period of January 1 – December 31, 2024.
- Applicant must be on a committee at least six months to receive scholarship points.
- Application must be submitted to scholarships@misgmp.org and received no later than 5:00 p.m. on January 31, 2025. Late applications may not be considered.
